Lyrics:
Joy thou Goddess, Fair immortal, Offspring of Elysium,
Joy in nature's wide dominion, Mightiest cause of all is found,
Mad with rapture, To the portal of thy holy fane we come!
And 'tis joy that moves the pinion, When the wheel of time goes round,
Fashion's laws indeed may sever, But thy magic joins again, Human-kind is one forever, 'Neath thy mild and gentle reign.
From the bud she lures the flower, Suns from out their orbs of light, Distant spheres obey her power, Far beyond all mortal sight.
