

Web Of Life © W. Songsmith 2008

The musical score is written in treble clef with a key signature of one flat (Bb) and a time signature of 6/8. The melody is primarily composed of eighth and quarter notes, often beamed together in pairs. Chords are indicated by letters above the staff: C, F, G, G7, and C. The lyrics are written below the staff, with line numbers 5, 9, 13, 17, 23, 27, 31, 35, and 39 marking the beginning of each line. The piece concludes with a double bar line and a final chord of C.

Voi - ces in the wil - der - ness, Ca - ll to us at the edge of sleep,
E - choes reach us fro - m the dream - time, An - cient wis - dom bu - ried deep.
When we lived with - i - n the gar - den, Leaf and fea - ther we - re our kin,
Rock and ri - ver we - re our tea - chers, Free the we - b of li - fe did spin, Hol - ding u - s se - cu - re with - in.
No - w we wake to noi - se and tur - moil, Dai - ly grind a - nd end - less queues,
Con - crete can - yons, Pla - stic dreams, And sor - row a - t the la - test news,
What space is there for li - fe's web now, All a - to - mi - sed, All cu - t and dried,
With e - vry strand we bre - ak some - ho - w, We lose our ho - ld, Our wa - y, Our guide,
We feel such lo - neli - ne - ss in - side.

Sti - ll the voice of na - ture calls us, Show - ing us how to be whole,

Se - e the wis - dom o - f the weeds, To re - con - ne - ct must b - e our goal, To ce - le - brate the we - b of li - fe, Is what we ha - ve e - vol - ved to do, To heal and help, Our spe - cial ro - le, To weave the dre - am of li - fe a - new, To hold life de - ar, And b - e held too.